Utah residents please be advised of the following:

NOTICE TO POLICYHOLDERS

Insurance companies licensed to sell life insurance, health insurance, or annuities in the State of Utah are required by law to be members of an organization called the Utah Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association ("ULHIGA"). If an insurance company that is licensed to sell insurance in Utah becomes insolvent (bankrupt), and is unable to pay claims to its policyholders, the law requires ULHIGA to pay some of the insurance company's claims. The purpose of this notice is to briefly describe some of the benefits and limitations provided to Utah insureds by ULHIGA.

PEOPLE ENTITLED TO COVERAGE

- You must be a Utah resident.
- You must have insurance coverage under an individual or group policy.

POLICIES COVERED

- ULHIGA provides coverage for certain life, health and annuity insurance policies.

EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS

Several kinds of insurance policies are specifically excluded from coverage. There are also a number of limitations to coverage. The following are not covered by ULHIGA:

- Coverage through an HMO.
- Coverage by insurance companies not licensed in Utah.
- Self-funded and self-insured coverage provided by an employer that is only administered by an insurance company.
- Policies protected by another state's Guaranty Association.
- Policies where the insurance company does not guarantee the benefits.
- Policies where the policyholder bears the risk under the policy.
- Re-insurance contracts.
- Annuity policies that are not issued to and owned by an individual, unless the annuity policy is issued to a pension benefit plan that is covered.
- Policies issued to pension benefit plans protected by the Federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.
- Policies issued to entities that are not members of the ULHIGA, including health plans, fraternal benefit societies, state pooling plans and mutual assessment companies.

LIMITS ON AMOUNT OF COVERAGE

Caps are placed on the amount ULHIGA will pay. These caps apply even if you are insured by more than one policy issued by the insolvent company. The maximum ULHIGA will pay is the amount of your coverage or $500,000 — whichever is lower. Other caps also apply:

- $100,000 in net cash surrender values.
- $500,000 in life insurance death benefits (including cash surrender values).
- $500,000 in health insurance benefits.
- $200,000 in annuity benefits — if the annuity is issued to and owned by an individual or the annuity is issued to a pension plan covering government employees.
- $5,000,000 in annuity benefits to the contract holder of annuities issued to pension plans covered by the law. (Other limitations apply).
- Interest rates on some policies may be adjusted downward.

DISCLAIMER

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

· COVERAGE FROM ULHIGA MAY BE UNAVAILABLE UNDER THIS POLICY. OR, IF AVAILABLE, IT MAY BE SUBJECT TO SUBSTANTIAL LIMITATIONS OR EXCLUSIONS. THE DESCRIPTION OF COVERAGES CONTAINED IN THIS DOCUMENT IS AN OVERVIEW. IT IS NOT A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION. YOU CANNOT RELY ON THIS DOCUMENT AS A DESCRIPTION OF COVERAGE. ACCELERATED BENEFITS
(On Your Own Account)

A. Definitions

"Meet the Requirements" means:

1. your life span is drastically limited; and
2. you are expected to die within 6 months; and
3. you are not expected to recover.

These must be certified by a Doctor and accepted by us.

B. Coverage

We will pay Accelerated Benefits to you if:

1. you apply for Accelerated Benefits while your Life Benefits are in effect; and
2. you Meet the Requirements while you are covered for Life Benefits; and
3. you or your legal representative requests payment of Accelerated Benefits while your Life Benefits are in effect.

Accelerated Benefits are payable only once.

Payment of Accelerated Benefits will reduce your Life Benefits and the amount available for you to convert to a personal policy of life insurance under RIGHT TO OBTAIN A PERSONAL POLICY OF LIFE INSURANCE ON YOUR OWN LIFE.

C. Proof

Accelerated Benefits will be payable when we receive proof that you Meet the Requirements.

Proof must be given to us. The proof must be in a form that is satisfactory to us. We have no duty to ask for any proof. Any delay in submitting proof will not cause a claim to be denied so long as the proof is given as soon as reasonably possible.

At the time that such proof is given, we may have you examined by Doctors of our choice, at our expense.

D. Amount

The amount of Accelerated Benefits payable is:

1. up to 50% of your Life Benefits shown in the SCHEDULE OF BENEFITS; and
2. determined as of the date we accept certification that you Meet the Requirements; and
3. no more than $250,000.

If your Life Benefits are scheduled to reduce within six months of such certification date, we will, for the purpose of determining the amount of Accelerated Benefits, deem the amount of your Life Benefits to have already been reduced on such certification date.

After payment of the Accelerated Benefits, the amount of your Life Benefits will be:

1. the amount of Life Benefits actually in effect on the certification date; less
2. the amount of Accelerated Benefits requested.

When the scheduled reduction date occurs, the amount of your Life Benefits will be reduced. The amount of such reduction will be determined by applying the percentage in accordance with the provisions of This Plan to the amount of your Life Benefits actually in effect on the certification date.

After such scheduled reduction, the amount of your Life Benefits will be the amount of your Life Benefits actually in effect on the certification date:

REDUCED BY

the amount of such scheduled reduction; and

MINUS

the amount of Accelerated Benefits requested.

Accelerated Benefits will be payable if you are living when payment is made.

For Texas Residents: Upon receipt of your claim form we will send you a Preadjudication letter containing specific information on the payment you requested. Such information will include the amount of payment which will be made to you and the amount of death benefit remaining after payment of the Accelerated Benefit.

E. Exclusions

Accelerated Benefits will not be payable if:

1. you have assigned your Life Benefits (see Assignment provision under SCHEDULE SUPPLEMENT); or
2. the amount of your Life Benefits is less than $10,000.

F. Time Limits on Starting Lawsuits

No lawsuit may be started to obtain benefits until 60 days after proof is given.

Form G.23000-36-2

RIGHT TO OBTAIN A PERSONAL POLICY OF LIFE INSURANCE ON YOUR OWN LIFE

1. the date your Life Benefits end because your employment ends or because you are no longer in a class which remains eligible for Life Benefits; or
2. the date your Life Benefits end because This Plan ends, but only if your Life Benefits under This Plan have been in effect for at least 5 years; or
3. the date This Plan is changed to end the Life Benefits for your class, but only if your Life Benefits under This Plan have been in effect for at least 5 years.

For New Hampshire residents. 4. if item A(1) applies to you, the amount of the policy will not be more than the amount of your Life Benefits on the date the Life Benefits end; and

C. If You Die During the Application Period

If you die during the Application Period, we will pay a death benefit to the Beneficiary. The amount of the death benefit will be the highest amount of life insurance pursuant to item B(4) or B(5) for which a personal policy could have been issued. This death benefit will be paid even if you did not apply for a personal policy.

Form G.23000-1A

BENEFICIARY

A. Your Beneficiary

The "Beneficiary" is the person or persons you choose to receive any benefit payable because of your death.

You make your choice in writing on a form approved by us. This form must be filed with the records for This Plan.

You may change the Beneficiary at any time by filing a new form with the Employer. You do not need the consent of the Beneficiary to make a change. When the Employer receives a form changing the Beneficiary, the change will take effect as of the date you signed it. The change of Beneficiary will take effect even if you are not alive when it is received.

A change of Beneficiary will not apply to any payment made by us prior to the date the form was received by the Employer.

Your choice of a Beneficiary for a personal policy issued under RIGHT TO OBTAIN A PERSONAL POLICY OF LIFE INSURANCE ON YOUR OWN LIFE will be effective for This Plan.

B. More Than One Beneficiary

If, when you die, more than one person is your Beneficiary, they will share in the benefits equally, unless you have chosen otherwise.

C. Death of a Beneficiary

A person's rights as a Beneficiary end if:

1. that person dies before your death occurs; or
2. that person dies at the same time your death occurs; or
3. that person dies within 24 hours of your death.

The share for that person will be divided among the surviving persons you have named as Beneficiary, unless you have chosen otherwise.

D. No Beneficiary at Your Death

If there is no Beneficiary at your death for any amount of benefits payable because of your death, that amount will be divided and paid in equal shares to each member of the first class in the order listed below in which there is a person who is related to you and who survives you:

- | | |
|------------|------------------------|
| 1. spouse; | 3. parent; |
| 2. child; | 4. brother and sister. |

If there is no surviving relative in any class, that amount will be payable to your estate.

Any payment will discharge our liability for the amount so paid.

Form G.23000-G

WHEN BENEFITS END

If This Plan ends in whole or in part, your benefits which are affected will end.

The end of any type of benefits on account of a Covered Person will not affect a claim which is incurred before those benefits ended.

Form G.23000-F

NOTICES

This certificate is of value to you. It should be kept in a safe place. Your Beneficiary should know where the certificate is kept.

As soon as your benefits end, you should consult your Employer to find out what rights, if any, you may have to continue your protection.

The insurance evidenced by this certificate is not in lieu of and does not affect any requirement for coverage by workers' compensation insurance.

If you had coverage under a prior plan of benefits, please consult your Employer to determine if there are any additional provisions which affect your benefits under This Plan.

If you cease to be actively at work as an Employee as a result of a labor dispute, arrangements may be made by your Employer to continue your Personal Benefits. You may continue these benefits:

1. for a period of not longer than 6 months; and
2. only if certain conditions of This Plan are met.

One of these conditions is that at least 75% of the Employees make the required payments to the cost of any benefits. Your benefits will end unless the arrangements are made within the time allowed. Ask your Employer for the details on these arrangements.

CLAIMS INFORMATION

Procedures for Presenting Claims for Life Benefits

All claim forms needed to file for benefits under the group insurance program can be obtained from the Employer who will also be ready to answer questions about the insurance benefits and to assist you or, if applicable, your beneficiary in filing claims.

Life Benefits Claims

Routine Questions

If there is any question about a claim payment, an explanation may be requested from the Employer who is usually able to provide the necessary information.

Claim Submission

In submitting claims for Life benefits ("Benefits"), the claimant must complete the appropriate claim form and submit the required proof as described in the certificate.

Claim forms must be submitted in accordance with the instructions on the claim form.

Initial Determination

After MetLife receives your claim for Benefits, MetLife will review your claim and notify you of its decision to approve or deny your claim.

Such notification will be provided to you within a reasonable period, not to exceed 90 days from the date we received your claim, unless MetLife notifies you within that period that there are special circumstances requiring an extension of time of up to 90 additional days.

If MetLife denies your claim in whole or in part, the notification of the claims decision will state the reason why your claim was denied and reference the specific Plan provision(s) on which the denial is based. If the claim is denied because MetLife did not receive sufficient information, the claims decision will describe the additional information needed and explain why such information is needed. The notification will also include a description of the Plan review procedures and time limits, including a statement of your right to bring a civil action if your claim is denied after an appeal.

Appealing the Initial Determination

In the event a claim has been denied in whole or in part, you or, if applicable, your beneficiary can request a review of your claim by MetLife. This request for review should be sent in writing to Group Insurance Claims Review at the address of MetLife's office which processed the claim within 60 days after you or, if applicable, your beneficiary received notice of denial of the claim. When requesting a review, please state the reason you or, if applicable, your beneficiary believe the claim was improperly denied and submit in writing any written comments, documents, records or other information you or, if applicable, your beneficiary deem appropriate. Upon your written request, MetLife will provide you free of charge with copies of relevant documents, records and other information.

MetLife will re-evaluate all the information, will conduct a full and fair review of the claim, and you or, if applicable, your beneficiary will be notified of the decision. Such notification will be provided within a reasonable period not to exceed 60 days from the date we received your request for review, unless MetLife notifies you within that period that there are special circumstances requiring an extension of time of up to 60 additional days.

If MetLife denies the claim on appeal, MetLife will send you a final written decision that states the reason(s) why the claim you appealed is being denied, references any specific Plan provision(s) on which the denial is based, any voluntary appeal procedures offered by the Plan, and a statement of your right to bring a civil action if your claim is denied after an appeal. Upon written request, MetLife will provide you free of charge with copies of documents, records and other information relevant to your claim.

Discretionary Authority of Plan Administrator and Other Plan Fiduciaries

In carrying out their respective responsibilities under the Plan, the Plan Administrator and other Plan fiduciaries shall have discretionary authority to interpret the terms of the Plan and to determine eligibility for and entitlement to Plan benefits in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Any interpretation or determination made pursuant to such discretionary authority shall be given full force and effect, unless it can be shown that the interpretation or determination was arbitrary and capricious.

STATEMENT OF ERISA RIGHTS

The following statement is required by federal law and regulation.

As a participant in the Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, all Plan documents governing the Plan, including insurance contracts and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit Plan. The people who operate your Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries.

No one, including your employer or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110.00 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court.

In addition, if you disagree with the Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a domestic relations order or a medical child support order, you may file suit in Federal court.

If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court.

The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees.

If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees; for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
